First (Scotch) Presbyterian Church,
Charleston, S. C.

The First (Scotch) Presbyterian Church was organized A. D. 1732. The original building was of wood, and during the Revolutionary War was occupied by British Soldiers while the City was in possession of the British troops, 1780-1782. The present building was erected in 1813-1814 and dedicated December 29, 1814.

Pub. by Paul E. Trouche, Charleston, S. C

POST CARD

This side for address

Place Postage Stamp Here

Domestic and Canada One Cent

Foreign Two Cents